Chipotle Gluten-Free Menu Items

Chipotle has many gluten-free choices, making it a good option for people who avoid gluten. The only main items with gluten are the flour tortillas used for burritos, quesadillas, and soft tacos. You can safely enjoy burrito bowls, salads, or tacos with crispy corn tortillas.

All proteins at Chipotle—like chicken, steak, barbacoa, carnitas, sofritas, and even seasonal items such as smoked brisket—are gluten-free. Most toppings and sides are also safe, including both white and brown rice, black and pinto beans, fajita veggies, guacamole, cheese, salsas, and tortilla chips.

While cross-contamination is possible since everything is prepared in the same kitchen, you can ask staff to take extra care, like changing gloves, if you are very sensitive to gluten.

How to order at Chipotle?

1. Ordering with the Chipotle App or Website (Recommended)

Using the official app or website is the best choice because you can earn Chipotle Rewards points and get app-only deals.

- Start Your Order: Open the app or website, then choose a pickup or delivery location.
- Choose Pickup or Delivery:
  - Pickup: Select a nearby restaurant and a pickup time. Some locations have a "Chipotlane" drive-thru or a mobile pickup shelf for quick service.
  - Delivery: Enter your delivery address. Orders placed directly with Chipotle earn rewards points (unlike many third-party orders).

- Build Your Meal: Pick your base (burrito, bowl, tacos, or salad), choose your protein, and add toppings like rice, beans, salsa, cheese, or veggies.
- Customize Portions: Select options like "extra," "light," or "on-the-side" for most ingredients.
- Review & Pay: Confirm your meal, then pay with a card, gift card, Apple Pay, or Google Pay.
- Pick Up or Get Delivery: You'll get an estimated time. For pickup, simply grab your food from the mobile shelf or Chipotlane.

2. Ordering with Third-Party Apps

You can also order Chipotle using delivery services like DoorDash, Uber Eats, or Grubhub.

- Find Chipotle: Open the delivery app and search for Chipotle.
- Build Your Meal: Customize your food just like you would in the Chipotle app.
- Checkout: Pay directly through the delivery app.
- Track Your Order: Watch your order status and delivery driver in real time.
